MANY ARE ENROLLED

Good Year Indicated for California Normal School

SEVERAL FROM CHARLEROI

With a big enrollment as large or larger than at the beginning of last year's fall term, the Southwestern State Normal School at California opened yesterday, and the first session began this morning. The enrollment is as usual largely of young women, teaching as a profession not appealing to young men. It is only for teachers that the school is conducted.

The enrollment as near as can be told at present is between 425 and 450. At the beginning of last year there were about 415 pupils enrolled at the beginning.

The first year students at the Normal this year start under a new ruling for State Normal schools made last fall. This is to increase the usual three year's course to a four year's course. The four year course will not affect any of the classes at the Normal except the entrants this year, and they will graduate in 1914.

Among the Charleroi students at the Normal this year, are Misses Mildred Lowstutter, Margaret Stephens, Elma Lutes, Hazel Blahard, Stella Carson, Emma Bass Hair and Ruby Charles.

WEDNESDAY THE LAST DAY FOR VOTERS IN COUNTY TO REGISTER

Republican County Chairman Anticipates Large Vote Along Valley at the November Election

Tomorrow will be the last day for the voters to register before the November election and those who do not by that time have their names on the books, will miss their vote. County Chairman Frank McClay of the Republican county committee has announced that the county voting lists will be issued as soon as possible after the final registration. It is expected that the books will show a big increase in the number of voters in the mining districts and especially in the Monongahela valley.

During the past year in the county there have been a number of foreigners secured their naturalization papers, and these will vote for the first time this fall. There are several of these in Charleroi.

The registry assessors in Charleroi are George D. Clarke, first precinct; Paul R. Nutt, second precinct; and Henry P. Acker, third precinct. Voters can call on these officials if their names have been omitted. The registration books have been returned from Washington and are now at the Borough Clerk's office.

TWENTY-FIVE FOREIGNERS ARRESTED IN A BUNCH

Each Is Fined $25 and Costs Under Game Law Prohibiting Alien From Owning Gun

Twenty-five foreigners were arrested Sunday in a field near Eldora Park with Springfield rifles. The arrests were made by Deputy Game Warden Henry Bergman of Monongahela, with the assistance of Constable Elmer Jerico and Fred Sellman.

When arrested the men were engaged in drilling. They were taken to Monongahela where Mayor Isler yesterday morning fined them $25 each, for having guns in their possession contrary to the State law, which they refused to pay. The mayor then remanded them to jail to serve a day for each dollar, but through an attorney the case was appealed, and will be fought out in the courts.

It appears that the men were members of the Donora Polish church, and their pastor stated they belonged to a society of a semi-military nature, and had drills and sham battles to commemorate events in their native land. The arrests and indictments were made under the game law, which prohibits foreigners from owning guns, presumably for hunting purposes. The foreigners claim they were not hunting, neither were the guns used for that purpose. They propose to test the matter in the courts, and will raise a fund to meet the expenses.

Committee Appreciates Aid Extended by Local People Citizen's Help Meant Much for Success of Demonstration for Home Man on Saturday Evening

To the Editor of the Charleroi Mail:

Dear Sir—The executive committee of the Charleroi Republican Campaign Club has at all times realized that the opening of the State Republican campaign in Charleroi was not a Charleroi affair but a Western Pennsylvania event. We desire to publish the fact that we feel the opening was a marked success, a day in the history of Charleroi which will long be remembered and pointed back to with pride as the Tener Day.

In order that honor may go where honor is due we desire to publish our appreciation of the hearty and unbounded enthusiasm met with by the committee on every hand in every place in planning and preparing for the event. For their great showing in the monster parade several of our neighboring towns deserve special mention, but since all were in hearty accord in their good wishes to Mr. Tener we leave our appreciation to the individual praise which is heard on every hand.

The hearty support given by nearly 150 of Charleroi's foremost citizens who acted upon the various committees and made possible the successful culmination of the great event deserves special mention by this committee and we are assured that they are receiving the thanks of the Charleroi public in general. One of the bright spots in the work of the executive committee was the hearty and unanimous endorsement it received at the hands of the people of Charleroi while assembled in the Bank of Charleroi Hall on Friday evening, August 25.

In conclusion the committee desires to express its highest appreciations of the good fellowship found existing in the party throughout the district which augurs well for a successful conclusion of the campaign thus opened. With firm faith in the integrity of the men whom we have striven to honor we wish them God speed in their canvass for office and will rely upon their allegiance to the great principles of government upon which the Republican party was founded and which we have no doubt they, its representatives, will continue to adhere to. Realizing that our party as well as the government is just what "we the people" make it let us one and all by word and act strive to deserve the citizenship which we hold dear by manifesting our convictions at the polls on November 8th next.

Very respectfully,
S. C. Todd, Chairman.
C. O. Frye, Secretary.
C. F. Thompson,
W. W. Jameson,
J. E. Masters,
R. H. Rush,

Hospital Meeting Tonight

The regular meeting of the Charleroi Woman's Auxiliary of the Monessen-Charleroi Hospital will be held at the home of Mrs. F. P. McCloskey of Crest avenue this evening. As business of importance is to be transacted, all members are requested to attend.

Mrs. S. J. Richardson and granddaughter, Dorothy Richardson are spending the day in Pittsburgh.

D. N. Hall returned last evening from Parkersburg, W. Va., and other points in that vicinity where he had been for the past several days following the funeral here of his baby Raymond who died two weeks ago from infantile paralysis. Mrs. Hall and children will remain for a few weeks visit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Riley, of East Liberty, formerly of Charleroi, were visitors in this city over Labor Day.

AUGUST BUSY MONTH IN SHIPMENTS AT LOCK FOUR

Less Coal Passes Through Lock Than in July But Total is Better Than for Corresponding Month Last Year

EXCURSION TRADE EXCEPTIONALLY BRISK

Lock No. 4 had a comparatively busy month during August and for the summer trade. The total shipment of coal was exceptionally good. It did not come within the July total shipment by about 2,000,000 bushels, but surpassed the August and July shipments of last year.

The coal passing through the lock during the month was 15,679,000. Down stream there were 1,18 crafts locked through and 687 lockages were made. Up stream there were 1,362 crafts locked through and 694 lockages were made. The rain fall was 3.31 inches.

During the year 1909 there was a total shipment during August of coal of 14,402,000 bushels and in July 13,157,000 bushels. The July shipments this year totaled 17,675,000 bushels.

The fourth pool is full of loaded craft at the present time and the landings below are all full. The river is falling, the recent rains not having scarcely any effect.

A noticeable feature of the August report is the large list of passengers both up and down stream, indicating the popularity of boat excursions during the hot month. Down stream there were 2,929 and up stream there were 2,961 passengers.

Out-of-Town Students At Local School

Douglas College Begins Year's Sessions This Morning

With about 80 pupils present Douglas business College opened this morning. The enrollment is larger than at the beginning last year. Night school will start next Monday evening, and many expect to enroll for it. The students this year are largely from out of town.

Point of Law Causes Fight

Poles Argue, Then Mix It Up Until the Police Arrive

A discussion over a point of law in their own country terminated in a fight between a quartet of Poles on Eighth street last night. All four were arrested and this morning at a hearing before Burgess George W. Risbeck two were fined $1.00 and costs and two $3.00 and costs. With their scratched faces the men made a picturesque appearance in police court this morning.

SOCIALISTS HOLD OUTING

First Annual Affair At Eldora Park Draws Big Crowd

SPEAKING IS A FEATURE

Socialists to the number of 2,500 or more from Washington, Westmoreland and Fayette counties were present at the first annual Labor Day demonstration at Eldora Park yesterday. The feature of the day was addresses made by Rev. Edward Ellis Carr, of Chicago, editor of the Christian Socialist, and by Louis Gozzion, the editor of the L'Union des Travailleurs, of Charleroi.

Rev. Carr spoke in the afternoon and evening. In the afternoon his address was on the subject "The Fall of Mammon and the Rise of Man," and in the evening his topic was "Jesus and the Class Trouble." Mr. Gozzion spoke in the evening on the topic "Socialism. What it is and How to Get it."

Not only American Socialists but also party loyalists of other nationalities were present. George Petres of Roscoe addressed the Germans, but Carlo Tresco, of Pittsburgh was unable to be present to address the Italians.

As Others See Him
Editor John O'Donnell of the Uniontown Morning Herald visited Charleroi Saturday and was present at the big political demonstration in the evening. In yesterday's issue of the Herald Mr. O'Donnell contributes a two-column article on the topic, "John K. Tener—His Measure." A part of the article is devoted to Mr.
Tener's career, a subject already well known in this community, but regarding his impressions of Mr. Tener's personality and characteristic traits Mr. O'Donnell says:

"Let no man think for a moment that John K. Tener is any man's man.
He may lack the spread-eagleism and the vociferousness characteristic of the average politician; he does not speak in measured periods; he does not ges-ticulate; he does not furnish funny stories instead of facts. On the contrary, he takes his candidacy seriously. He knows full well the weight of his responsibility. In a word, his utmost aim is to make good."

"Subserviency is not a weakness of John Tener. There is too much Irish in his makeup for us to expect, or his political enemies to hope, that he will bend the pregnant knee at the behest of any man or set of men. Though modest of demeanor, he is nevertheless fearless and independent. His life is clean, his record above reproach. He acknowledges no conditions which are dishonorable; he bows to no power but the will of the people."

"Were John Kinley Tener to believe that the Governorship of Pennsylvania meant his departure in any way one particular from the principles which have won for him his splendid standing in Charleroi and throughout the Monongahela valley, where he is known better than he is anywhere else, I miss my guess if he would not stretch himself to his full height of six feet five or thereabouts and tell the men who proposed, no matter how exalted their political or business position, to go to blazes and take the Governorship with them."

Mr. O'Donnell was for six years managing editor of the Pittsburgh Dispatch, and in his connection with that paper traveled extensively over the United States and Europe, meeting and interviewing notable people. He is possessed of a keen, analytical mind, and his training and wide experience renders him capable of passing accurate judgment upon those with whom he comes in contact.

A Christian
A recent local controversy as to whether an elector should vote for a political candidate who is a Christian in preference to one who is not a Christian, calls forth the query as to what really constitutes a Christian.

In this connection Tolstoy, the great Russia humanitarian, has probably expressed the clearest and most accurate definition of what a Christian really is. "A Christian," says the great writer, "is not one who believes this or that about Christ, but one whose life is influenced by the teachings and example of Christ, even though he may never have heard of Christ."

This is the keynote of the new Christianity that is awakening the conscience of the present age. "Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, and you shall be saved," used to be the creed of what passed for Christianity.
This superficial generalism is now giving way to "Live the teachings of the Lord Jesus Christ and you shall be saved." This is what the new religion teaches, and it is quickening anew the religious life of the world.
The man who professes to believe in Christ, but is devoid of the attributes of brotherly love, truth, justice and humanity, can no longer pass muster as a Christian.

ELECTRIC SPARKS
Some men are endowed with great energy, but it is chiefly linguistic.
The truth and the Washington Observer are entirely two different things.
Some men are great—great liars.
Again it has been amply demonstrated that all Charleroi has to do is hold up the little finger of his left hand and people flock here in droves.
The Chronicle Telegraph remarks that "our baseball team cannot lose all the time." No, they don't play in winter.
Is marriage a success? has been asked. Considering the great number of divorces nowadays, we would answer in the affirmative.

Sad
The worst of all life's bitter knocks That brings up woes.
Is when the pan beneath the ice box Overflows.

It is stated that the Democratic candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania is coming to Washington county.
We hope he does and gets to meet E. F. Acheson.

There is only one man like E. F.
Acheson in Pennsylvania. That is, Ernest Acheson.

There is one slender hope that the

GRIM AND BERRY IN BITTER CLASH

Republicans Serenely Watch Democratic Row.

KEYSTONER IS IN A BAD WAY

Editors Who Once Supported Former State Treasurer Now Denounce Him and Call Upon Party Men to Stand by Nominations of Allentown Convention.

[Special Correspondence.]
Philadelphia, Sept. 6.

A sharp drawing of the lines in the factional fight in the Democratic party and a display of bitterness between the leaders of the Grim and Berry forces have served to accentuate the one-sided character of the gubernatorial campaign in Pennsylvania.

In the desperate struggle between the Grim adherents and the Berry warriors, Republicans are not playing favorites, but are complacently looking on and speculating as to which wing of the Democracy will land in second place on election day.

If the Republican leaders had planned the situation, they could not have brought about a happier condition for their candidates.

Following the remarkable demonstration given in his honor by his neighbors in the Monongahela valley, at the inauguration of his campaign at Charleroi, John Kinley Tener, the Republican standard bearer, will continue on his tour of the state, meeting the voters face to face, freely and manfully discussing the issues and conceding to his opponents the right to their views and absolutely refraining from personal attacks or abuse of any kind or character.

Contrasted with this sane and dignified policy is the spectacle of the divided Democracy, with candidates and leaders arrayed against each other in a spectacular and scandalous warfare.

Grim-Berry Combat.

What the Grim men say about Berry and what the Berry men say about Grim is frequently unfit for publication.

The charge that Grim's nomination was brought about by the liquor interests is met with the allegation that Berry, although upon record as a Prohibitionist and again as a local opio-nionist, conferred with representatives of the liquor interests, and as a result of pledges made at Allentown received the support in that convention of a number of delegates engaged in the saloon business.

Berry men accuse Grim of having advanced his cause of the withdrawal of Munroe of being in a conspiracy to secretly capture the Democratic convention. The Grim cohorts retort with allegations that Berry was in a conspiracy with Grim to down Munroe, that he at first accepted the vote at Allentown and pledged his support to Grim, and then violated this promise and deliberately lied when he said he had never given such a pledge.

Grim is accused of working hand in hand with Republicans. Berry is accused of an ingrate for having borrowed money from Guley and then deserting the Guley machine that made possible his election as treasurer.

These are but samples of the charges and counter charges that are being exchanged in the hot fire going on within the Democratic lines, the Keystone Party being generally accepted as an offshoot from the state Democracy.

Up to date Grim has a big lead over Berry in the way of substantial support.

Democratic Editors For Grim.

The veteran editor, P. Gray Meek, of the Democratic Bellefonte Watchman, has in a canvass and figures out that in the entire state there are about a dozen newspapers giving Berry any support, and of these only seven can claim any Democratic constitution, and the others are of a mongrel class that would naturally take up a cause such as the Berry candidate represents.

Meek insists that Berry should withdraw.

With the name of Grim nailed to his editorial masthead, Editor Joseph G.
Leshor, of the Huntingdon Monitor, has this gentle knock at the Keystone candidate:

"Over his own signature William H. Berry gave out to the press a ridiculous tirade against Senator Grim, in which he said: 'He sat in the senate when they burned one capitol down over his head and stole seven millions of dollars in building another.' As Senator Grim was not elected to the legislature until six years after the burning of the capitol in 1897, Mr.
Berry's statement is important only as proof of the recklessness and untruthfulness of the assertions he is making about Senator Grim."

Editor Meyers, of the Democratic Star-Independent of Harrisburg, takes the Grim end of the controversy, and among other things said in a recent issue:

"It is a pity that Mr. Berry, the Keystone Party's candidate for the office of governor of Pennsylvania, cannot see himself as others see him and cannot understand how ridiculous his attacks on the Democratic party sound in the ears of any sensible man in his audience.

"In almost every sentence of his speeches he tells those who will listen to him that he is the candidate of the Keystone Party only because he could not be the candidate of the Democratic party. He has given no other reason for his posing as a reformer, for there is none; he cannot muster enough of his particular brand of assumption to pretend that there is any other reason. He poses as a bitter enemy of the liquor interests, but he would have swallowed his convenient enmity and remained blind to what he calls the alliance between Penrose and the Democratic leaders if only the Allentown convention had given him that nomination."

"This story of the nomination is absurd from beginning to end. . . .
Because the party that honored him for five years has chosen another man for the head of its ticket, he is slandering and vilifying it and trying to defeat it while still pretending to be a Democrat."

The Philadelphia Record, which was one of Berry's principal supporters when he ran for state treasurer, is now for Grim. In a review of the situation in its issue of Monday last the Philadelphia Record said:

"The delay in the appointment of the state finance committee to the Keystone Party is said to be owing to difficulty in getting a sufficiency of the right kind of men to underwrite the conduct of the campaign. In this city the discussions in the independent ranks have evidently alienated from their camp a very large element of old-time reformers who include the persons that were the mainstay of the campaign funds in former battles here-against the political contractors' organization. The effect of this state of affairs upon the 'country' is said to be anything but conducive to such financial assistance as the Berry ticket managers hoped to receive for their cause."

[Special Correspondence.]
Harrisburg, Sept. 6.

A storm of protest has come in from every section of the state against the action of William T. Creasy in using his official position as head of the State Grange to promote his peculiar political interests and ambition to the detriment of the order.

Creasy, who is still scattering under the deluge administered to him at a primary election when he ran for the Democratic nomination for state treasurer in Lebanon county, is trying to get satisfaction from his Democratic and Republican opponents by separately attacking them. He has gone down William H. Berry, but goes on Berry and he has worked together in Democratic politics. Both stood by Berry to the end, and Creasy went to Allentown to try and have Berry make the Democratic nominee.

Having failed in this, he has over to the Keystone Party and was one of the most active spirits in the Keystone Party convention in support of Berry, and with Penrose and other well known Democratic leaders succeeded in defeating the element in the Keystone Party that favored the nomination of an independent Republican for governor.

Creasy has since been active in helping to manage Berry's campaign, and his most effective work is being done through the organ of the State Grange, known as the Grange News. As worthy master of the grange, Creasy has charge of this publication.

While it is conceded that Mr. Creasy has a right to vote for whom he please and to work for his election, it is contended that he has no right to use the organ of the grange, its official publication, to advance factional or personal interests or to espouse the cause of any political party.

Under the constitution of the grange officers and others are forbidden to interfere with the political or religious views of any of the members, and no official, high or low, has heretofore been permitted to take advantage of his position to influence or coerce any member in political or religious matters.

Under the editorial direction of Creasy the State Grange News has deteriorated into a political sheet. It has been diverted from its logical work of educating the members and others regarding matters of special interest to farmers and affiliated interests, and has been made the political mouthpiece of a defeated Democratic politician who seeks to line up the members of the grange at the coming election so as to serve his own purposes.

Included in the membership of the grange are Republicans, Democrats and Prohibitionists, who purpose to support the nominees of their respective parties. They insist that Creasy shall cease to use the Grange News for political purposes.

Creasy got a severe setback when he sought to have the committee of legislation of the grange declare against both Republican and Democratic parties and for Berry. He got but one vote besides his own and was greatly chagrined at the defeat of his scheme. Influential Grangers insist that Creasy must quit his political campaigning or resign as master.

UNCONSCIOUS WORRY.
Born of the Habit of Taking Things Too Seriously.

A great many people worry unconsciously, says O. S. Mardon in Success Magazine. They don't understand why they are so tired in the morning, why their sleep was so disturbed and troubled.

This mental disturbance is often caused by the habit of taking things too seriously, carrying too great a weight of responsibility. Everywhere we see people who take life too seriously. Most of us are like the motor man who not only starts and stops the car and tries to keep from running over people, but also feels tremendous anxiety and responsibility about the motor power.

One of the most helpful lessons life can impart is that which shows us how to do our work as well as it can be done and then let principle take care of the result. How often have we been amazed to find things come out much better than we anticipated; to find that the great unseen power that governs our lives through a wilderness of trial and tribulation late the open has guided our life ship through the fog of difficulties and of sorrow, through storms of hardships and losses, safely into port.

The pilot does not lose heart when he cannot see his way. He turns to that mysterious compass which sees as plainly in the fog and guides as faithfully in the tempests as when the sea is like glass. We are in touch with a power greater than any compass greater than any pilot, a power that can extricate us from the most desperate situation.

BUZZARDS' NESTS.
The Same Ones Are Rarely Used Two Consecutive Seasons.

The flight of the buzzard is as well high perfection as is possible to find.
In fact, he might be called the most perfect acrobat in existence. To see him soaring between the bare hills, with a vast green fertile valley below him and with the spring sun lighting up his brown plumage as he slowly sails around with outspread pinions, is a sight never to be forgotten.

The buzzard usually chooses a ledge on a cliff for an eyrie, but in certain parts of Wales there are a few well-used nests in trees, and as they are generally used by some bird of prey each season they grow to an enormous size. The buzzard does not, as a rule, use the same nest two consecutive seasons, but returns to it the third, and after that allows another season to elapse before occupying it again.

Two nests are often constructed in one dingle, and an amusing incident happened a few years ago in one of these places. The hen laid one egg in each nest, and as it was quite impossible for her to sit on both at once, we did her a good turn by placing one of these eggs in the nest with its companion. The result of our kindness was that a collector passed by about two hours afterward and put both eggs in his collecting box.

When I thought the matter over I came to the conclusion that that old buzzard was not half such a fool as we took her to be, and if we had left the eggs as we found them the bird might have had a chance of rearing one youngster.—Country Life.

The Astonishing Part.
Lord Townshend at the battle of Bettweng was standing quite near a drummer boy whose brains were dashed out by a cannon ball. His lordship gazed on the horrible spectacle for some moments in silence.

At last an old officer spoke up and said: "Why is your lordship surprised?
Such things must happen in war."
"I know it," was the reply, "but what astonishes me is that a boy with so much brains should be here at all."

A Bright Outlook.
"Do you—do you think, Miss Dobbleigh, that you will be—er—engaged next Thursday evening?" asked Tommy very bashfully.

"Well, really, Mr. Tommy," replied Ethel, "I don't know, but if you can get up spunk enough between now and then to do your share I think there's a fair prospect that I shall be."

And Tommy did.—Harper's Weekly.

Where It Hurts.
"Say, I have an awful pain. I wonder if it is appendicitis? Can you tell me on what side one gets it?"
"Why, on the inside, of course."

Columbia Jester.

Bad Selection.
"Goodness me, but that woman's makeup is loud."
"It is that. She should have used noiseless powder."—Baltimore American.

Was Cured by Lydia E. Pink-Elwood, Ind.—"Your remedies have cured me and I have only taken six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was sick three months and could not walk. I suffered all the time.

The doctors said I could not get well without an operation, for I could hardly stand the pains in my sides, especially my right one, and down my right leg. I began to feel better when I had taken only one bottle of Compound, but kept on as I was afraid to stop too soon."—Mrs.
SADIE MULLEN, 2728 N. B. St., Elwood, Ind.

Why will women take chances with an operation or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?
For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has cured thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigeswill be absolutely confidential,

CATARAH GERMS

Move out When Hyomei Moves in

No stomach dosing. Hyomei (pronounce it High-o-me) is made from the highest grade of eucalyptus, taken from the eucalyptus forests of inland Australia, and combined with the excellent antiseptics employed in the Lieterian system.

In inland Australia the atmosphere is so impregnated with balsam thrown out by the eucalyptus trees that germs cannot live, and in consequence catarrh and consumption are unknown.

Breathe Hyomei and get the very same, pleasant, healing, germ killing air as you would get in the eucalyptus forests and kill the germs.

Hyomei is sold by Piper Bros. and druggists everywhere, at $1.00 a complete outfit.

An outfit consists of a bottle of Hyomei, a hard rubber pocket inhaler and simple instructions for use. The inhaler will last a lifetime, but bear in mind if you need another bottle of Hyomei you can get it at druggists for only 50 cents. Guaranteed to cure catarrh, group and throat troubles, or money back. Trial sample of Hyomei free to readers of the Mail. Address, Booth's Hyomei Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

VEST'S CAMPAIGN SPEECH.

Why a Small Boy Persisted in Hearing It Every Day.

"Senator Vest was making a buggy campaign in southeast Missouri some years ago," said a Missouri official. "His driver was a small boy, who was duly impressed with the importance of his distinguished passenger."

"At each town visited by Vest the boy hurried his team to a convenient livery barn and then raced for the courthouse, or wherever the 'speckle' was to take place, and perched himself with painful regularity on the front seat. He invariably turned his eyes on the senator and took in every word of the speech as if his very life depended on it."

"Finally the lad's continued conspicuous presence among his auditors annoyed the senator, and he kindly but firmly reminded the boy that it was not necessary for him to attend every meeting."

"I make the same speech each time. You have heard it often enough to know it by rote, so just put in your time in the future looking after the team," he admonished his youthful driver.

"Why do you persist in always occupying that front seat? Didn't I tell you I make the same speech every day? It's as old and stale to you as it is to me. Why insist on hearing it again and again?"

"I want to see what you're going to do when you forget it," answered the boy. Vest capitulated.—St. Louis Republic.

SEVERAL FROM CHARLEROI

With a big enrollment as large or larger than at the beginning of last year's fall term, the Southwestern State Normal School at California opened yesterday, and the first session began this morning. The enrollment is as usual largely of young women, teaching as a profession not appealing to young men. It is only for teachers that the school is conducted.

The enrollment as near as can be told at present is between 425 and 450. At the beginning of last year there were about 415 pupils enrolled at the beginning.

The first year students at the Normal this year start under a new ruling for State Normal schools made last fall. This is to increase the usual three year's course to a four year's course. The four year course will not affect any of the classes at the Normal except the entrants this year, and they will graduate in 1914.

Among the Charleroi students at the Normal this year, are Misses Mildred Lowstutter, Margaret Stephens, Elma Lutes, Hazel Blanford, Stella Carson, Emma Bess Hair and Ruby Charles.

WEDNESDAY THE LAST DAY FOR VOTERS IN COUNTY TO REGISTER

Tomorrow will be the last day for the voters to register before the November election and those who do not by that time have their names on the books, will miss their vote. County Chairman Frank McClay of the Republican county committee has announced that the county voting lists will be issued as soon as possible after the final registration. It is expected that the books will show a big increase in the number of voters in the mining districts and especially in the Monongahela valley.

During the past year in the county there have been a number of foreigners secured their naturalization papers, and these will vote for the first time this fall. There are several of these in Charleroi.

The registry assessors in Charleroi are George D. Clarke, first precinct; Paul R. Nutt, second precinct, and Henry P. Acker, third precinct. Voters can call on these officials if their names have been omitted. The registration books have been returned from Washington and are now at the Borough Clerk's office.

TWENTY-FIVE FOREIGNERS ARRESTED IN A BUNCH

Twenty-five foreigners were arrested Sunday in a field near Eldora Park armed with Springfield rifles. The arrests were made by Deputy Game Warden Henry Bergman of Monongahela, with the assistance of Constable Elmer Jerico and Fred Sellman.

When arrested the men were engaged in drilling. They were taken to Monongahela where Mayor Isler yesterday morning fined them $25 each, for having guns in their possession, contrary to the State law, which they refused to pay. The mayor then remanded them to jail to serve a day for each dollar, but through an attorney the case was appealed, and will be fought out in the courts.

It appears that the men were members of the Danora Polish church, and their pastor stated they belonged to a society of a semi-military nature, and had drills and sham battles to commemorate events in their native land. The arrests and indictments were made under the game laws, which prohibit foreigners from owning guns, presumably for hunting purposes. The foreigners claim they were not hunting, neither were the guns used for that purpose. They propose to test the matter in the courts, and will raise a fund to meet the expenses.

Committee Appreciates Aid Extended by Local People

Citizen's Help Meant Much for Success of Demonstration for Home Man on Saturday Evening

To the Editor of the Charleroi Mail:

Dear Sir—The executive committee of the Charleroi Republican Campaign Club has at all times realized that the opening of the State Republican campaign in Charleroi was not a Charleroi affair but a Western Pennsylvania event. We desire to publish the fact that we feel the opening was a marked success, a day in the history of Charleroi which will long be remembered and pointed back to with pride as the Tener Day.

In order that honor may go where honor is due we desire to publish our appreciation of the hearty and unbounded enthusiasm met with by the committee on every hand in every place in planning and preparing for the event. For their great showing in the monster parade several of our neighboring towns deserve special mention, but since all were in hearty accord in their good wishes to Mr. Tener we leave our appreciation to the individual praise which is heard on every hand.

The hearty support given by nearly 150 of Charleroi's foremost citizens who acted upon the various committees and made possible the successful culmination of the great event deserves special mention by this committee and we are assured that they are receiving the thanks of the Charleroi public in general. One of the bright spots in the work of the executive committee was the hearty and unanimous endorsement it received at the hands of the people of Charleroi while assembled in the Bank of Charleroi Hall on Friday evening, August 25.

In conclusion the committee desires to express its highest appreciations of the good fellowship found existing in the party throughout the district which augurs well for a successful conclusion of the campaign thus opened. With firm faith in the integrity of the men whom we have striven to honor we wish them God speed in their canvass for office and will rely upon their allegiance to the great principles of government upon which the Republican party was founded and which we have no doubt they, its representatives, will continue to adhere to. Realizing that our party as well as the government is just what "we the people" make it let us one and all by word and act strive to deserve the citizenship which we hold dear by manifesting our convictions at the polls on November 8th next.

AUGUST BUSY MONTH IN SHIPMENTS AT LOCK FOUR

Lock No. 4 had a comparatively busy month during August and for the summer trade. The total shipment of coal was exceptionally good. It did not come within the July total shipment by about 2,000,000 bushels, but surpassed the August and July shipments of last year.

The coal passing through the lock during the month was 15,679,900. Down stream there were 1,181 crafts locked through and 687 lockages were made. Up stream there were 1,362 crafts locked through and 694 lockages were made. The rain fall was 3.31 inches.

During the year 1909 there was a total shipment during August of coal of 14,402,000 bushels and in July 13,157,000 bushels. The July shipments this year totaled 17,655,000 bushels.

The fourth pool is full of loaded craft at the present time and the landings below are all full. The river is falling, the recent rains not having scarcely any effect.

A noticeable feature of the August report is the large list of passengers both up and down stream, indicating the popularity of boat excursions during the hot month. Down stream there were 2,929 and up stream there were 2,961 passengers.

Move out When Hyomei Moves in

No stomach dosing. Hyomei (pronounce it High-o me) is made from the highest grade of eucalyptus, taken from the eucalyptus forests of inland Australia, and combined with the excellent antiseptics employed in the Listerian system.

In inland Australia the atmosphere is so impregnated with balsam thrown out by the eucalyptus trees that germs cannot live, and in consequence catarrh and consumption are unknown.

Breathe Hyomei and get the very same, pleasant, healing, germ killing air as you would get in the eucalyptus forests and kill the germs.

Hyomei is sold by Piper Bros. and druggists everywhere, at $1.00 a complete outfit.

An outfit consists of a bottle of Hyomei, a hard rubber pocket inhaler and simple instructions for use. The inhaler will last a lifetime, but bear in mind if you need another bottle of Hyomei you can get it at druggists for only 50 cents. Guaranteed to cure catarrh, group and throat troubles, or money back. Trial sample of Hyomei free to readers of the Mail. Address, Booth's Hyomei Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

VEST'S CAMPAIGN SPEECH.

Why a Small Boy Persisted in Hearing it Every Day.

"Senator Vest was making a buggy campaign in southeast Missouri some years ago," said a Missouri official. "His driver was a small boy, who was duly impressed with the importance of his distinguished passenger."

"At each town visited by Vest the boy hurried his team to a convenient livery barn and then raced for the courthouse, or wherever the 'speckle' was to take place, and perched himself with painful regularity on the front seat. He invariably turned his eyes on the senator and took in every word of the speech as if his very life depended on it."

"Finally the lad's continued conspicuous presence among his auditors annoyed the senator, and he kindly but firmly reminded the boy that it was not necessary for him to attend every meeting."

"I make the same speech each time. You have heard it often enough to know it by rote, so just put in your time in the future looking after the team," he admonished his youthful driver.

"Despite the senator's objection, the boy was again in the front seat the next day and the following day. This annoyed Vest and he threatened."

"Why do you persist in always copying that front seat? Didn't I tell you I make the same speech every day? It's as old and stale to you as it is to me. Why insist on hearing it again and again?"

"I want to see what you're going to do when you forget it," answered the boy. Vest capitulated. — St. Louis Republic.
